Cambridge 18 Sept 1827

My dear Miss Kirkland

I think I have tryed your patience long enough. You mean to avenge old grudges & punish my neglects. — I wish you will come down with Aunt — You need not fear about getting back — You need have no dread about my Chateau — ~~I will~~ If you find it necessary, I will go home with you in the winter vacation. But the best way is for my mother to break up this winter & visit, [illegible] & board ~~out~~ — However at any rate, do you come. — We have lost two excellent students by dysentery. It has pretty much subsided. — I have had Quarters at present at Mr. Fessenden's —

Shall be home the last of this week —

Saw Sally &c on Saturday — Love — She was well & Frank —

With great affection

J. T. K.

I owe you 30. in addition to 20. sent some few weeks ago, which 30. I herewith enclose —
